

ATMS PAC Exec
Meeting minutes
December 3, 2007

Playground proposal arrived. Estimate is just under $55,000 from Mark Suttle Agencies. A poster has been given with the playground items on it, not necessarily in the places they have to be.

Both grants have been applied for. The matching and the lotto. Best-case scenario would be we would have $50,000 to work with, the worst is $15, 000 that we have set aside. Grants will be announce Jan 31, 2008.

Tuesday Dec 11, Estella and Pam will decorate the Tree

Christmas Brunch Thursday, Dec 13. Items on Menu will be muffins, Danish, fruit platter, cinnamon pull aparts, coffee, tea, juice.

Estella – napkins, plates, tabletop poinsettias, cd's,

Pam – decorations, Christmas platters, door prizes, flowers

Sheilagh – Red tablecloths, cd's, order coffee and paraphernalia from Tim Horton's ask for freebie door prizes.

Rhonda – Platters, cd's, shopping, invitation to parents and to reply with ideas for discussion topics ,

Lori - order the muffins/cinnamon/danishes either talk to Kamal or Cobs Bakery and will set them up on the platters.

Agenda will be quite informal

Treasurer's report

Playground proposal report with poster on wall

Principal's report

Roundtable discussion

Financial Facts Flash will be prepared by Lori and sent to Rhonda who will get it put up on website.

DPAC has purchased books for every PAC in the school district.

Hold on to Your Kids by Gordon Neufeld and Gabor Mate.

The Complete Idiots Guide to Roberts Rules of Order, by Nancy Sylvester

Supporting Student Success BCCPAC

Daljeet – We need host families for the 15 Columbia students. Book club will be on 3rd Wed or Thurs morning of the month.

Estella with contact Elana Wharry about taking over Samosa Day. Pam will do next Tuesday.

